COUNCIL.

PROCLAMATION.

CAPELL, CYRILL WICH, W. DUNCOMBE.

HEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God of his Infinite Goodness, in Answer to the Prayers most humbly and devoutly Offer'd to him, to Preserve Their Majesties and Their Government, against the Designs and Attempts of Their Open and Secret Enemies, and to Protect his Majesties Person from the Many and Great Dangers of the War, in his late Expedition beyond the Seas, and to bring him back in Safety to his Kingdom of England: We therefore, Adoring the Divine Goodness, and Duly Considering that such Great and Publick Blessings do Call for Publick and Solemn Acknowledgments; have thought fit, and (with the Advice of Their Majesties Privy Council here) Do hereby Appoint and Command, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these his Mercies, be Observed throughout the City of Dublin, and the County of the same, on Sunday the Third Day of December next; and in all other Places throughout this

this Kingdom on Sunday the Tenth Day of December next. And for the Better and more Orderly Solemnizing of the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops of this Kingdom to Compose a Form of Service suitable to this Occasion, to be Used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the Execution of the same throughout their Respective Provinces and Dioceses. And We do in Their Majesties Name strictly Charge and Command, that the said Publick Days of Thanksgiving be Religiously Observed by all Their Majesties Loving Subjects, as they Tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of suffering such Punishments as We can by Their Majesties Authority justly Inflict for the Contempt or Neglect thereof.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the Twenty Second day of November, 1693.
